

CAMPOREE 2019

Camp Tamarancho | October 4-6 | $15 per person

Sign up today @ www.boyscouts-marin.org. Deadline: October 1.

Rotations

The Barrels: Scouts will have the chance to participate in a rifle shooting activity where their accuracy will be scored for points.

The Bows: Scouts will have the chance to participate in an archery activity where their accuracy will be scored for points.

Garden Grounds Tomahawk Range:

Scouts will participate in a Tomahawk throwing competition for Camporee points.

NAYLE Team Building:

Scouts will get to experience a variety of team-building challenges like they might experience at NAYLE programs at each of the 4 high adventure bases in the US.

Jambo Grounds: Scouts will participate in a pioneering challenge that will put their First Class lashing skills to the test.

Lumberjack Row: Scouts will use their Totin' Chip skills to complete this challenge.

Rigging the Sails: Scouts will put their First Class knots and swimming to the test in this activity.

White Otter Lake: Scouts will have the chance to engage in a unique canoeing challenge.

Lost Klondike: In this two-station activity, Scouts will have the chance to engage in challenges designed and organized by Talako Lodge and will have the chance to earn rare patches from this year's canceled Klondike in addition to their Camporee ones.

Other Activities

Campwide Evening Games:

The VOA will host a series of fun and exciting evening games/activities in the meadow during the Camporee for the Scouts to participate in. Examples of such games include Capture the Flag and the Great Escape.

Dutch Oven Competition: Each patrol will be tasked with creating their own Dutch oven dessert which will be judged and shared for a chance of winning a separate Dutch oven award.

Troop Cooking: Scouts will get the chance to earn their First Class cooking requirements as all troops will be cooking their own meals for breakfast, lunch, and dinner on Saturday. Please come prepared with equipment and food. Breakfast on Sunday will be provided.

Campfire: Patrols will have the chance to perform a skit or song at a councilwide campfire on Saturday night.

