*Boy Scout Leader Specific Training is the Second part of training beginning with Youth Protection – available online: <http://www.myscouting.org/> Youth Protection must be taken in order to be registered with the BSA. Boy Scout Leader Specific Training is required for Scoutmasters and Assistant Scoutmasters (part of the Journey to Excellence). Scoutmasters and Assistant Scoutmasters also need to take Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills. SM/ASM Training is not complete until all three courses are completed.

Course Objectives:

- Fine-tune your troop meeting, patrol method, counseling, advancement, outings, youth training, troop committee, budget & planning – get your questions answered!
- Have confidence in your ability to lead troop activities and adventurous outings.
- Know resources available to you at the council and national BSA.
- Know the structure of BSA and the team that supports YOU as you deliver the promise of Scouting to the boys.
