Parent Information for Provisional Scouts

Preparing Your Scout

To prepare your Scout for camp, download the 2018 Leader's Guide and the Parent Information Guide from the camp web site at www.marinsierra.org. Click on Boy Scout Summer Camp for the camp home page. Any materials you need will be posted there. Be sure your son's Scoutmaster is aware he is attending a week of camp with a provisional troop so he can help prepare the Scout. If you do not have a Scoutmaster who can do this, find an alternate guide in another Scouting adult.

Advancement at Camp

- Talk with your Scoutmaster about the badges or programs in which you want to participate.
- If there is pre-work or requirements that can not be done at camp, make a plan with your Scoutmaster to complete those.
- Complete a merit badge application (blue card) and have your Scoutmaster sign it.
- Sign up for the merit badges on Monday morning at 8:25 a.m. for scheduled sessions only.
- Bring your signed and completely filled out blue card with you to the first session.
- When completed, your counselor will sign your merit badge application. If you have not completed the badge by the end of the camp week, the counselor will not sign the application, but list the requirements that have been completed on the grid.
- On Saturday morning before 8:00 a.m., parents should check with the provisional troop Scoutmaster for all the blue cards or certificates the Scout earned. Ask for missing information at that time.

Check-in: 12:00 Noon–1:00 on Sunday

The provisional Scouts will check in, then they will be placed with the troops that have adopted them when the troops arrive. They will then proceed through the orientation procedure with that troop. Parents are welcome to stay or leave after the Scout is checked in.

Check-in: Turn in all forms for the Scout. Bring a bag lunch; there is no food service in camp until dinner. Noon to 4:00—Round robin with Troop Guide (not necessarily in this order):

- Medical re-check. Turn in health forms, Minor Activity Release Form, medications, and Special Dietary Needs Form.
- Swim Check. Necessary for aquatics merit badges or recreational swimming. Wear swim trunks under uniform when traveling for convenience or have them handy.
- Camp Tour: Commissary, program areas, shooting sports safety orientation.
- Campsite check-in and set-up (last).
- 5:45—Assembly; 6:00—Dinner; 7:15—Safety Demonstration; 8:10—Chapel

Check-out by 8:00 a.m. Saturday

Please be on time to pick up your Scout. We would suggest coming to camp early enough to not only pick up the Scout but also to check with the Scoutmaster about his advancement during the week.

Contacting your Scout at Camp

If you need to contact your Scout, be sure to obtain the cell numbers of the troop leadership with whom he is staying. (Non-Verizon phones work the best.) We discourage Scouts from bringing cell phones, and many troops do not allow their Scouts to have them. (See our cell phone policy in the parent and leader guides.) For emergencies, call 530-389-2427. This only rings to the camp director's office, which is not staffed 24 hours per day. Incoming calls are taken as messages and left in the troop's mailbox. Fax: 530-389-2231.

More Information

You can find out all the information about camp by downloading the Marin Sierra Leader Guide and the Parent Guide at www.boyscouts-marin.org. Provisional Scout parents are welcome to attend any pre-camp leader's meetings held in various different locations in March and April. Possible locations are: Roseville, San Rafael, and possibly a webinar this year. To find out where and when they will be, contact the Marin Council office. The purpose is to share information about the programs and how to get the most out of your week at camp and answer any questions you may have. You can contact the camp director, Tim Wells, at 415-454-1081 ext. 104 or at camping@boyscouts-marin.org.
