

BADEN-POWELL HONOR TROOP AWARD

Unit Participation Checklist

This is a list of the criteria YOUR Troop must achieve as a UNIT to earn the Baden-Powell Honor Troop Award during your camp week.

Troop # _____ Campsite _____ Week # _____

1}	DAILY campsite inspection scores averaging at least 85 points for the week.
2}	Attend at least 8 of the 10 morning and evening camp-wide assemblies.
3}	At an assembly, your troop members show appreciation to another troop or member of another unit for their Scout spirit, service, or good Scout example.
4}	The Senior Patrol Leader attends all scheduled SPL meetings.
5}	At least one Troop leader represents your unit at all morning leader meetings.
6}	The Troop participates in the Tuesday evening and Friday afternoon games.
7}	The Troop participates in a camp service project or a camp conservation project as a unit (1 hour per Scout). *
8}	The Troop invites and receives the company of at least 3 staff members during a meal; the more the merrier and doesn't have to be all at the same time (Wednesday jamboree lunch is not included).
9}	The Troop participates in at least one activity as a unit --- troop campfire, unit swim, COPE, game, etc. (not the service project above)
10}	The Troop participates in the Friday night campfire program with entertainment (skit, song, story) approved by the Camp Program Director.
11}	All Scouts in the Troop earn at least one BSA merit badge, or participate in a high-adventure activity (COPE or climbing), or all first-year campers achieve at least five rank requirements at Trail-to-First-Class.

* SPLs should schedule their unit service project with the Camp Commissioner before 12noon on Wednesday.

Scoutmasters should confirm honor troop status with the Camp Commissioner before 12noon on Friday. The Baden-Powell Honor Troop Award will be recognized at the Friday evening assembly in the meadow before the closing campfire program.

Un-Scout-like or inappropriate behavior/yells by any troop members can eliminate a unit from the possibility of receiving the Baden-Powell Honor Troop Award.
